uses Vedic Astology – KP system: subs, Placidus Houses and ayanamsa Lahiri.

The running period for the event is : Mercury, Rahu, Jupiter.

- Mercury, the ruler of the dasha, is in a sub of Saturn and Saturn signifies the Houses VI, VIII and XII through the subs. Saturn is in the VIII House
- Mercury is conjunct to Jupiter and Rahu is in a nakshatra of Jupiter, the ruler of the House IV, the House of the parents. The Sun, which signifies the father, and the cusp of the House IV are in a sub of Rahu.
- Rahu is closely aspected by Mars. So Rahu acts like Mars and adds its malice and suddenness to the events. Rahu is in opposition to the Sun, placed in the Nodes axis. Therefore, the death of the father happened suddenly. On the day of the event, Rahu was closely conjunct to the Sun and in a sub of Jupiter.

S L Narasimhan (India)

Method - Khullar cuspsl interlink using SSL

Dasa running on date of event was Mercury-Rahu-Jupiter-Moon-Mercury

All are significators of 9-4-10-3 and Badka 5 which gives clear indication that the native father was in danger.

Realtime transit - Sun was transiting Moon Sign (sookma lord) and in Saturn Star. Saturn was SSL of 4th Cusp which is 8th House from 9th. Moon was transiting Saturn and Mars Star. Mars again Virtual SSL of 3rd House which is Marka House for native's father. Death giving planet Saturn was again transiting in Mars sign and Saturn Star. This confirms the event could be father's death only.

Virtual transit- Progressed Ascendant SSL is Saturn which is significator of 9-4-3-10 and 5. In the natal chart. Moon Progressed position also operate above Houses in Progressed chart of the event day. Above doubly confirms the event could be father's death.
