The answer is option 2: her father died

In the Chart of the day of the event you see:

Below are my findings for Test 76. I see support for both health problems and her father's death in the Lunar Return. However, the aspects are more closely conjunct for the father.

- Lunar Return 1st Lord Mars is debilitated and placed in the Lunar Return 8th House of death. Mars is also the natal 9th Lord, representing paternal affairs
- Lunar Return 7th Lord Venus (representing the father as 10th from the 10th) is conjunct Lunar Return 8th Lord Mercury and placed in the Lunar Return 8th House
- Lunar Return 10th House cusp is closely conjunct natal Pluto at one degree
- Lunar Return 9th House cusp (paternal lineage) closely conjunct natal Rahu.

On May 26, a total Lunar eclipse occurred at 5° Sagittarius. This was conjunct with the Sun (general significator of the father) in the 4th (House of the father), and in square with Jupiter, the Ruler of the 8th and almuten of the 12th, which is conjunct with the cusp of the 8th. The eclipse was also in square with Uranus, which may point to a sudden death.

On May 23, Saturn stationed retrograde at 13° Aquarius. This was exactly in square with Venus, which is almuten of the 8th and posited in the 4th. This station was also in a close square with the Lot of Death.

In the Lunar return, Mars, the almuten of the 1st, is in its fall in the 4th. The Moon, almuten of the 4th, is on the cusp of the 8th and in square with Jupiter, the almuten of the 8th. Saturn, Ruler of the Lot of Death, is conjunct with it, and opposed to the Lot of the Father.

In the quotidian chart, Venus, ruler of the 4th, is conjunct with Mercury, Ruler of the 8th, and in square with Neptune. The Moon, almuten of the 4th, is in its detriment in the 12th House, and conjunct with the Ascendant.
