uses Vedic astrology (Solar Return)

Solar Return Ascendant is conjunct the natal 12th lord Moon and the natal 8th Lord Neptune in the Ascendant, suggesting losses and sudden events related to the body. The four angles of the Solar Return are badly afflicted by five malefics, indicating significant harm to the body. Saturn, Ketu, and Pluto are conjunct in the Solar Return 4th House, which can indicate brutality within the home. Mars and Rahu are conjunct in the Solar Return 10th house at zero degrees, which is highly significant. The native was running Rahu dasha, which gives the results of its lord (12th lord Moon) and any conjunct planets in the Solar Return (Mars).

Mars is the man's Atmakara (Jaimini indicator of the native himself). A Mars-Rahu combination can indicate unethical behavior in the Houses it rules or where it is placed. Since Mars rules the 4th House and is placed in the Solar Return 10th, this suggests potentially unethical and brutal actions in the home (4th House) that will become public knowledge (10th House). Having Mars-Rahu in 10th opposing a Saturn-Ketu-Pluto conjunction in the 4th implies violence within the home. Since Saturn is the Darakaraka (Jaimini indicator of the spouse), who is conjunct Pluto and Ketu in the Solar Return, the man's wife may have also died.
