The answer is option 2: she slipped on a wooden jetty at her home and broke her wrist.

- Mars, accident on the 1st House draw immediately you attention
- Mars trine Mercury, natural Ruler of the writs and Ruler of the 8th House
- Moon in 1st (body) trine Uranus and square Saturn (Ruler of the 3rd = wrist and Saturn rules the bones)

I made it a little bit easier for you by giving you three possible answers instead of 4. And you all did well.

8 Astrologers participated in the Test. 5 Found the correct answer. Their answer follow below in order of receipt.

Anne Fryer (Australia)
uses the AH Technique

- Mercury (wrist) square FMC in 1st (body)
- Stellium in 1st – the body
- Mars rules both Asc (Body) and 6th (illness)
- Part of Fortune and Moon square Saturn broken bones
- Moon square Saturn – Bones/ jetty
- Asc. is midpoint of Mars/Sun - accident to body
- Sun square Saturn

Susanne Tietgens (Germany)
uses the AH Technique

- Ruler of the 1st House Mars (also Ruler 6) trine Mercury in detriment in Pisces. Mars = fracture, Mercury = hand/arm
- Mercury Square Floating MC
- Sun antiscia Venus in the 3rd House / Venus Square Pluto in the 6th House (a fall is possible)
- Saturn Square Moon and PF in the 1st House (bad luck for the native). Saturn = bone
- Floating MC conjunct Northnode (NN = wrist)

Erika Eilert Hein (Germany)
uses the Age Harmonic Technique

- Mars in conjunct Scorpio Asc. (accident)
- Jupiter (wood) in the 3rd House
- Mercury in Pisces (wet jetty) square the Floating Mc
- Saturn (bones) in 10th House in Leo (wrist)
- Saturn Ruler of the 6th (House of illness) and 10th House conjunct the Asc.

Pierre le Gal (France)
uses vedic astrology – ayanamsa Lahiri – Placidus House system

The running period for the event is : Rahu, Mercury.

Rahu I conjunct to Mars and is placed in a nakshatra of Saturn. Saturn is in the House VI and conjunct to Ketu.

Mercury rules the House III of shoulders, arms, hands and signifies the same by himself. Mercury is also in a nakshatra of Saturn and in a sign of Mars. Mars is in a nakshatra of Mercury. With Saturn in the Nodes axis in Capricorn, an accident on bones, nerves, articulations may occur. The injuries touch what Mercury rules.

Chiarastella Ghersani (Italy)
uses the AH Technique

- Mars square Saturn risks of wrong decisions,accidents.
- Sun and Moon at 90 degrees from Saturn it needs reflection and prudence-obstacles to autonomy
- 12th House in Scorpio the challenge to dangers increases
- Mercury and Uranus in Pisces: poor alertness of mental reflexes- physiologically Mercury also represents the wrists

Well done everybody! A new Test will be posted to the website round and about June 1st
