Above you see their different AH Charts.

In the AH of A you see:

- Mercury and Jupiter ( Ruler of the 1st and 7th natal House) conjunct in the 1st AH House
- Mercury and Jupiter trine PoF conjunct Saturn, Ruler of the 10th of social status, close to the 10th House cusp
- and Sun/Venus trine PoF and Saturn as well

In woman B 's Chart those Planets are in complete different Houses: Mercury/Jupiter in the 12th Saturn in the 8th , and Saturn doesn't Rule the 10th in her AH Chart.

uses SA progressions

The difference in twin horoscopes lies in the different axes (AC-DC / IC-MC). That has to be the key to the solution. In a marriage, the ruler of the 7th house is important in the progression. In sister 1, the solar arc shows the release of the rulers of the 7th house (Jupiter / Neptune = marriage).

uses Vedic Astrology, focusing on the D9 and the D60 charts.

With twins that are born close together, usually at least one bhava cusp within the D60 varga will be different between the two individuals. Since the twins were born 10 minutes apart (a larger gap), they have many differences in the divisional charts, including different ascendants and different bhava cusps in both the D9 navamsa (the divisional chart governing marriage) and the D60 chart.

Woman B (born at 6:00 hours) was running Mercury-Mars-Rahu dasha. In her navamsa, Cancer is the Ascendant, and Moon is not one of the three dasha lords. In her D60 varga, Mars is placed in the 5th House and does not rule the 7th cusp. Instead, the Sun rules the 7th cusp. In the D60 chart, Mars rules the 4th and 12th bhava cusps for Woman B; neither of these cusps are linked to marriage. So, Woman B did not marry on the specified date.

Woman A (born at 5:50 hours) was running Mercury-Mars-Mars dasha on the specified date.

In Woman A's D9 chart, Mercury is the Ascendant sign and Mercury is placed in Aries (Mars' sign). Looking at Woman A's D60 chart, Mars rules the 2nd and 7th bhava cusps and is placed in Mercury's sign. The 7th cusp signifies the spouse. What's even more amazing is that in Woman A's D60 chart, Mars is placed in Mercury's sign in the critical 9th House, the House governing marriage. So Woman A's D60 chart aligns perfectly with all three dasha lords, who have mutual agenda for marriage.

The running period of the twin sisters is : Saturn, Jupiter

1) Dasha and bhukti

Saturn, the ruler of the dasha, governs also the 7th House and takes place in the Ascendant sign, in a nakshatra of Khetu. Kethu is in Libra, a sign of union.

Jupiter, the Ruler of the sub-period, signifies the husband as well as the legal union.

Jupiter is in a kendra from the Moon, placed in the 7th House

2) The Ascendant and the D9

a) Woman A : the Ascendant is in a nakshatra of Venus, Purva Phalguni, and Venus is in a nakshatra of Saturn, the ruler of the 7th and the dasha lord. Venus signifies love.

In the D9, Venus is in the 1st House, opposite Saturn in the 7th House. The marriage will happen.

b) Woman B : the Ascendant is in a nakshatra of the Sun, Uttara Phalguni, and the Sun is placed in its own nakshatra. Therefore the Sun is not directly linked to the 7th House nor to Venus. In the D9, the House I is empty. The opposition Venus-Saturn goes into the 6-12 axis. The marriage will not happen.

Method: Khullar Cuspal Inter Links Using SSL

Time of birth rectified to 05 45 19. This Time satisfies all the conditions of a perfect Ascendant as laid down in the above-mentioned KCIL theory and 3rd Cusp SSL Moon who is in the star of Jupiter also connects birth star of younger Coborn.

Dasa period running on event date was Mercury- Mercury – Ketu - Mercury - Jupiter. First condition for period of marriage as per KCIL is Dasa lord should be significator of 5-7-11. Bhukti lord should not only significator of 5-7-11 but it should appear as a planet in the 7th cusp. Here Mercury appears as SL of 7th cusp and its Star and SL are simultaneous significator of 5-7-11. Mercury SSL Venus appears in 11th cusp as virtual SSL with Positional Status. Similarly Ketu and Jupiter operates 5-7-11.

Real transit: Moon star on the day is Saturn which we'll connects 7th SSL. Sun again transits on Mercury the dasa and bhukti lord. Jupiter Transits on Jupiter sign (Prana lord) and Ketu Star (Antara lord).

Virtual Transit: Progressed Ascendant on the event date is No which is strong significator of 7th . Moon's progression confirms this.
